

Self Check-In

It is possible for a customer to make a self check-in using the card.  If the customer receives an Error message that he/she can not check in, you should double-check the basic settings; the basic settings specify how long it takes before the customer can check in.